

Local nonprofit hosts Family Friendly Event to Raise Awareness and Support for Domestic Violence Program

5th annual fundraising event held during Domestic Violence Awareness Month will benefit LifePoint Solutions' Women of Worth domestic violence program

Amelia, OH—October marks Domestic Violence Awareness Month, a time for mourning those who have died as a result of abuse, celebrating those who have survived, and raising public awareness about the issue of domestic violence.

On Saturday October 2, 2010 LifePoint Solutions' Women of Worth program will host their 5th annual Women of Worth Yard Sale and Harvest Celebration Bash' at LifePoint Solutions' 43 East Main Street Amelia location from 9am – 5pm . The goal of the event is to draw attention to the issue of domestic violence and work towards changing the course of domestic violence for local victims and their families.

The Harvest Celebration Bash' is family friendly and helps raise support for Women of Worth, a program providing vital services to victims of domestic violence across Greater Cincinnati. The event includes a yard and bake sale, live entertainment, and children's activities. All proceeds raised will directly impact the Women of Worth program and the women and families they serve.

The following week on Saturday, October 9th, the Women of Worth program will present 'A stand against Domestic Violence,' a Candlelight Vigil creating awareness through song, healing testimony and music. The candlelight vigil will be held at LifePoint Solutions' Amelia location from 6pm – 7pm. The event is open to the community, those who attend are encouraged to show support by wearing purple.
